

FINAL RESULTS EDITION. GREEN EDITION.

NEW RIOTING IN SPRINGFIELD AS TROOPS FILL CITY

Whites and Blacks Looking for Trouble Flock In from Other Places Following a Lynching, the Killing of 2 Men and Wounding of 75.

NEGRO RESCUED FROM MOB IN THE FIGHTING TO-DAY

Sheriff Warned of Another Outbreak and Citizens Notified in Proclamation to Stay Indoors To-Night—County Official Shot and Robbed by Negroes.

Lincoln's Proclamation as It Applies to Springfield Riots

Extract from the Proclamation of Emancipation of Abraham Lincoln, Sept. 22, 1862: "And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defense, and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 15.—Unless 2,500 members of the State militia, now speeding toward this city already encamped here, can absolutely control the situation, Springfield will be to-night the scene of the worst race riot in the history of the country since the days of the Civil War. This city, the home of Abraham Lincoln, after passing through a night of murder, lynching and arson, in which one negro was lynched, two white citizens were killed, and more than seventy persons were injured, is a hot-bed of anti-negro sentiment.

The bitter feeling obtains all over this section of Illinois. Hundreds of farmers and rough, reckless men are pouring into the city from the mining towns around Springfield, looking for trouble. Hundreds of negroes are fleeing the city by train, by trolley and on foot, but many determined negro men are coming in from Decatur, Bloomington, Peoria and other nearby cities to take part in the race war if it shall be continued.

FIGHTING RENEWED TO-DAY.

Two calls for troops reached the militia headquarters in the County Jail during the day. One came from Fourteenth and Reynolds streets, where a negro was attacked by several white men, following a discussion of last night's affray. Members of the Clinton company of militia rescued the negro by forming a hollow square and conducting him to the jail. The other call for troops came from the same vicinity. There was an outbreak, but the attitude of the crowd became so threatening that four companies were ordered to disperse it.

This afternoon Gov. Deneen issued a statement in which he detailed the riotous doings of last night, the events leading up to them, his subsequent action in calling out the troops and concluded as follows:

"We are prepared to meet any further trouble that may arise. A few assaults have been made during the day, but were not serious. The community, however, is in a state of unrest."

At daylight this morning it appeared that the local militia, reinforced by companies from half a dozen cities in the central part of the State, had the situation under control. The white and negro mobs had dispersed, the smoking ruins of five square blocks of property were under police guard and every surgeon in the city was busily engaged in attending to the injuries of persons who had taken part in the rioting.

Gov. Deneen, upon reviewing the ground, announced that no more troops would be needed. The local authorities expressed the opinion that the disturbance had passed. The two negroes whom the mob had tried to remove from the jail and lynch were safe in confinement in a city far removed from Springfield.

New Spirit of Riot. Then the report swept through the city that Assistant County Treasurer Howe had been held up in the early dawn by a mob of negroes, fatally shot and robbed of a sum of money, his watch and diamonds. The slumbering anti-negro feeling was fanned into flame again, the mob was aroused from the sleep of fatigue and the streets soon swarmed with armed men.

The Governor promptly took action. He ordered the First Regiment of Chicago to be mobilized and despatched to Springfield by special train. There

COMPLETE CHARTS OF TO-DAY'S RACES. The Evening World. "Circulation Books Open to All." NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1908. "Circulation Books Open to All." RESULTS EDITION. PRICE ONE CENT.

YACHTSWOMEN SEE U.S. ARMY OFFICER SHOOT MAN DOWN

Brother of Capt. Haines Holds Back Crowd With Pistol During Tragedy

AT THE BAYSIDE CLUB.

Annis, Mortally Wounded, Falls Overboard After Fifth Bullet.

Peter C. Haines, Jr., of the regular army, a son of Gen. Peter C. Haines, stationed at Fort Hancock, shot five times and mortally wounded William E. Annis, on the flat of the Bayside Yacht Club, near Flushing, L. I., this afternoon. With Haines was his brother, Thornton, who drew a pistol and held the crowd at bay.

"If anyone interferes," said Thornton, "I will shoot him." This is a matter between these two men.

Annis, who is editor of "Recreation," a magazine, at No. 4 West Twenty-second street, Manhattan, had just returned from a sail on the yacht Pam, with the owner of the boat, Lewis Harway. Both are members of the Bayside Yacht Club, while Haines and his brother were not known there.

As Annis and Harway stepped on the boat, on which there were several women and members of the club, Haines, who wore his uniform, and his brother approached. Peter C. Haines thrust his hand under Harway's arm. He held a magazine revolver of large calibre, and fired five times at Annis. Each bullet took effect, three of them in the stomach.

Then Thornton Haines drew a pistol and announced that he would stop any interference. Annis fell overboard into the water, while the women on the boat screamed and started on the long run toward the clubhouse.

Harway, cried, "My God, what have you done?" and reached over the edge of the boat for his friend.

Neither of the Haineses made any attempt to get away. They were placed under arrest and taken to the Flushing Police station. Annis was taken to the Flushing Hospital. It was said there his case was hopeless.

After the men were arrested, Thornton Haines said his brother had shot Annis because of Annis's attentions to the wife of Peter Haines. Capt. Peter Haines is suing his wife for divorce. He is on leave of absence at present and is living with his brother at Bay Ridge.

Annis is forty-two years old. His home is in Murray Hill, Flushing. He married Miss Von Hunnerlein ten years ago. They lived for some time in Austria. His wife is a daughter of Count Julian Von Hunnerlein. They have two children.

Harway's brother is also detained by the police.

BURGLARS CARRY $5,000 LOOT FROM MARQUAND HOUSE

Banker's Valuable Art Collection Robbed at Mt. Kisco Mansion.

Lang on Frank Gill began to move up fast and came out of a bunch to the lead when near the last sixteenth. The boy had a lot of hard riding, however, to win, for under the whip Tony Bonero came very fast to be second, with Jack Atkin third. Frank Gill was in his favorite winning place of 4 to 1, with 1 to 1 for third.

Dugan Wins Opener. Heom, with E. Dugan up, won the first race easily. The new six-furlong chute was used in this race. Away at the first start, Danny Dugan sprang to the front and led the field for two furlongs, when Besom showed in front.

Garner on James B. Brady challenged, but shaking him off easily Besom came home two lengths in the lead. Prizette was third, with Black Mary close to her saddle cloth.

Cassidy in Fine Form. Mars Cassidy was in fine form to-day, for his effort in the second race, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. Half the entries were scratched, leaving only five to start. Dugan, on Homestead, seemed to have the place safe, but he was nipped right on the post by Smith on Ragman, who was under the whip Tony Bonero.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

FRANK GILL WINS RICH HANDICAP AT EMPIRE TRACK

Comes From Behind in Stretch Run and Beats Good Field.

JACK ATKIN IS THIRD.

Good Crowd Turns Out for Opening Day of Races at Yonkers Course.

EMPIRE CITY RESULTS.

FIRST RACE—Besom (6 to 5 and 2 to 5) 1, James B. Brady (7 to 5 for place) 2, Frizette 3.

SECOND RACE—Ethereal (2 to 5 and out) 1, Ragman (3 to 5 for place) 2, Homecrest 3.

THIRD RACE—Dark Night (4 to 1 and 6 to 5) 1, Queen Marguerite (2 to 5 for place) 2, Cymbal 3.

FOURTH RACE—Frank Gill (6 to 1 and 2 to 1) 1, Tony Bonero (6 to 1 for place) 2, Jack Atkin 3.

FIFTH RACE—Harrigan (7 to 5 and 1 to 2) 1, Garland (2 to 1 for place) 2, Billy Bodemer 3.

SIXTH RACE—Comedienne (9 to 10 and 1 to 3) 1, Rockstone (even for place) 2, Coat of Arms 3.

(Special to The Evening World.)

EMPIRE CITY RACE TRACK, Yonkers, Aug. 15.—Is Jack McGinnis lucky? Where did Frank Gill come from any way to win the Yonkers Handicap, a feature of the opening day races here this afternoon. It was a peculiarly run race with ten starters.

Jack Atkin, owner, Schreiber's famous flying carrier, was the 2 to 1 favorite and well played by the Saturday crowd of 10,000 turf patrons, who came to the track hungry for the sport after the Saturday morning.

None thought the weight too much, more fear being expressed at the capability of H. Shreve to get the horse in the lead.

Araze also seemed to have a chance at the weights and was nibbled at odds of 5 to 1 down to three. McCarter got some play, as did Charles Edward. But where did Frank Gill come from?

McCarter showed first ahead of the field at the first turn and his backers began to get real jubilant. Charles Edward and Araze were running well, while Frank Gill was absolutely last near the stretch turn. Niel on Charles Edward, challenged and moved into first place, but he was overtaken by Tony Bonero, who came in from the back and won the race.

Tony Bonero came from away back, passing McCarter, H. Smith, Charles Edward, and Charles Edward, who were running well, while Frank Gill was absolutely last near the stretch turn. Niel on Charles Edward, challenged and moved into first place, but he was overtaken by Tony Bonero, who came in from the back and won the race.

Frank Gill Comes Fast. Lang on Frank Gill began to move up fast and came out of a bunch to the lead when near the last sixteenth. The boy had a lot of hard riding, however, to win, for under the whip Tony Bonero came very fast to be second, with Jack Atkin third. Frank Gill was in his favorite winning place of 4 to 1, with 1 to 1 for third.

Dugan Wins Opener. Heom, with E. Dugan up, won the first race easily. The new six-furlong chute was used in this race. Away at the first start, Danny Dugan sprang to the front and led the field for two furlongs, when Besom showed in front.

Garner on James B. Brady challenged, but shaking him off easily Besom came home two lengths in the lead. Prizette was third, with Black Mary close to her saddle cloth.

Cassidy in Fine Form. Mars Cassidy was in fine form to-day, for his effort in the second race, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. Half the entries were scratched, leaving only five to start. Dugan, on Homestead, seemed to have the place safe, but he was nipped right on the post by Smith on Ragman, who was under the whip Tony Bonero.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

Dark Night a Surprise. Dark Night, at a 1 to 1 upset the talent, as in the first event, sent all away to good start. The crowd went to the Queen Marguerite at even and Harcourt at 7 to 2. To a very strong Queen Marguerite got the lead, while Dugan held until well along the stretch, where Smith on Ragman, a lawyer, which had been running easily, moved up and took command. Little Upton held second place safe, but could never get up on the leader. Crystal, third, was under the whip at the finish.

GIANTS BEAT THE CARDINALS 4-1. PIRATES WIN AND CUBS LOSE

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include Giants, St. Louis, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Chicago, Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Highlanders.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.

Table with 3 columns: Team, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows include New York, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis, St. Louis.